

I pay for my phone service, it is for my personal contacts and I should not have to answer unsolicited, unwanted, annoying calls at the whim of a salesperson, at dinner time. If I need a service or a product I will research the company in my time frame, NOT AT 6PM. The no call list in Wisconsin has given us peace and quiet during the evening and should not change.